[XXIII^d. YEAR.] THE [N°. 1189.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1768.

VENICE, March 30.

WE have just received Advice from Rome, that 1800 Neapolitan Troops have taken Poſſeſſion of Benevento, which Place, though ſituate in the Kingdom of Naples, belongs to the Pope, and therefore this Proceeding of the King of Naples occaſions various Conjectures.

WARSAW, March 26. Since Advice has been received of a Confederacy being formed in Podolia, where 5000 Men have been inliſted, ſeveral Conferences have been held in the King's Preſence; and the Troops that are quartered near that Province, are ordered to aſſemble. We do not yet know whether this new Confederacy is ſupported under Hand by any foreign Power, and though Prudence directs that proper Meaſures ſhould be taken to ſupport it, we have no Reaſon to be uneaſy about it, eſpecially as the Ruſſian Troops are ſtill in this Kingdom, and Prince Repnin has declared to the King, that as the Empreſs, his Sovereign, has guaranteed all that was ſettled by the Great Commiſſion, he is perſuaded that her Imperial Majeſty will, if neceſſary, make Uſe of her Arms to aboliſh this new Confederacy.

PARIS, April 1. It is reported that the Propoſitions for an Accommodation between the Genoeſe and the Corſicans having proved unſucceſsful, and the Treaty between our Court and the Republic of Genoa being near expired, that Treaty has been lately renewed, in Conſequence of which 8 or 10,000 of our Troops are going to be ſent to Corſica, under the Command of Lieutenant-General Count de Vogue, and Major-General Count de Narbonne.

VIENNA, April 6. The Pope's Nuncio made his Entry laſt Monday, and had his Audience Yeſterday, that he might be in Public, in order to be able to perform the Marriage Ceremony To-morrow. The Archduke Ferdinand will be the King of Naples's Proxy. The Queen of Naples will ſet out a few Hours after.

Yeſterday the Neapolitan Ambaſſador went to Court with a great Retinue, and had an Audience of their Imperial Majeſties, to demand her Royal Highneſs; after which ſhe was betrothed with the uſual Ceremonies. To-day her Royal Highneſs ſigned and ſwore to the Act of Renunciation of all Pretenſions to Allodials, &c. and every Claim whatever, in the Form that has always been practiſed on theſe Occaſions.

PARIS, April 8. It is aſſured, that the Ambaſſadors from France, Spain, and Naples, at Rome, have received Orders to join in demanding of the Pope to withdraw his Brief concerning the Dutchy of Parma, and likewiſe a Satisfaction for this Inſult; and it is preſumed that his Holineſs is diſpoſed to come to an Accommodation.

LONDON.

March 4. A Letter from Liſbon, ſays, "it is ſtrongly reported that the Dutch Ships are returned without landing their Preſents at Algier; and that the Dey had declared War againſt Holland. He has made great Preparations by Sea; and one of his Ships of 36 Guns, which was ſent out on a Cruize, was lately loſt off Bona."

March 31. A Letter from Tregony, in Cornwall, mentions, that at the conteſted Election there, Nine People were killed in the Mob.

It is ſaid, that Orders are given for building ſeveral Fire-Ships and Bomb-Ketches at Plymouth and Chatham.

April 2. It is ſaid that ſeveral Petitions have lately been preſented to the Boards of Treaſury and Plantations, for opening a Trade to the Iſland of Corſica, and for appointing a Conſul to reſide in that Iſland.

We hear that Sir Edward Hawke, and other Lords of the Admiralty, will ſet out early in the enſuing Summer, to make a Survey of all the Men of War at Portſmouth and Plymouth, with the Royal Arſenals and Dock-Yards.

They write from Breſt, that the Valeur Frigate, and Three Tranſports, with Artillery and Troops on board, had juſt ſailed, and it is ſaid for Goree Iſland, to be employed in eſtabliſhing a Factory and Settlement near Cape Verd.

April 5. Saturday the Purſer of the Lord Holland Eaſt-Indiaman, Capt. Nairne, from Bengal, came to the Eaſt-India Houſe, with an Account of her ſafe Arrival at Falmouth; ſhe brings the agreeable News that all is quiet and well there; that the Revenues of that Kingdom have come in beyond Expectation, and it is aſſured that there will be more Ships, and richer Cargoes, this Year, than ever came from that Country. She likewiſe brings Advice that Col. Smith, who commands the Troops in the Five Northern Provinces, on the Coaſt of Coromandel, and who, as was ſome Time ago mentioned, had marched againſt Hyder Ali, has defeated him in Two Engagements, and is purſuing the Advantages of his Victories.

Some Letters from Conſtantinople mention, that a dangerous Conſpiracy was diſcovered among ſeveral of the Grandees of the Empire, during the Illneſs of the Grand Seignor, but that proper Meaſures had been taken to prevent the threatened Miſchief.

A Correſpondent ſays, "Tho' the French retired Fifteen Hundred of their Troops from Corſica laſt Year, they intend to act quite on a different Plan this, and are to have Twenty-one Battalions there before July (Twenty Battalions make above 10,000 Men:) It is publickly ſaid that Monſ. de Navarre, Major General, is to go with the firſt Embarkment of Fifteen, and that the Prince of Beauveau, Lieutenant General, and in every Reſpect of the higheſt Rank, is to follow with the other Six, and take the Command. Politicians are left to ſettle the Conſequences."

They write from Dreſden of the 21ſt Ult. that the Camp of Electoral Troops which is to be formed the enſuing Summer in the Neighbourhood of that Capital, will conſiſt of 30,000 Men at leaſt.

Several Sets of Gentlemen, in different Parts of this City, animated with univerſal Ideas of Liberty, and being deſirous of meeting together happily, choſe Yeſterday for that Purpoſe, it being the Birth-Day of the illuſtrious Paſchal Paoli, General of the Corſicans; in particular there was a very reſpectable Company at the Queen's-Arms in St. Paul's Church-yard, where James Boſwell, Eſq; was Preſident, when the following Healths were drank: The King, Queen, and Royal Family, Paſchal Paoli, Succeſs to the brave Corſicans, May the Corſicans be countenanced by every State, which has a juſt Value for Liberty, Lord Halifax, Lord Shelburne, Lord Lyttleton, General Conway, Horace Walpole, Dr. Franklin, Mrs. Macaulay, with many other Toaſts, and a Society is formed to meet annually on that Day.

Some Letters from Leghorn, mention a Report prevailing there, that the Court of Verſailles had engaged to diſpoſſeſs the Corſicans of all the ſtrong Holds taken from the Republic of Genoa, during the Courſe of the late War.

Private Letters from Corſica mention, that in a late Council of the States, it had been reſolved to make no Oppoſition to the Landing of the French Troops in that Iſland, but that a great Number of armed Militia ſhould be held in readineſs to take the Field on any Emergency.

From Corſica, we are told, that General Paoli has lately ſent one of his Nobles, a Perſon of great Abilities, to execute an important Commiſſion at the Court of Berlin.

Extract of a Letter from Genoa, March 23.

"The Rebels every Day gain Ground of us; and if the freſh Succours that we have been flattered with from France do not quickly arrive, we ſhall probably be ſoon obliged to renounce the Dominion which the Republic has exerciſed over thoſe People, and make a firm and ſolid Peace with them, the Baſis of which will be their Liberty."

Private Letters from Genoa inform, that ſeveral Maritime Powers had lately entered into Treaties of Commerce with the People of Corſica.

It is now confidently aſſerted, that if the French ſhall ſend Twenty Battalions of their Troops againſt the brave Corſicans, another great Nation will at laſt ſtep forth as the public Guardian of Liberty; ſo that important News may be expected.

This Day ſeveral Colony Agents attended at Lord Hillſborough's Office, Whitehall, with ſome Diſpatches lately received from the American Colonies. It is ſaid, if any Changes ſhould take Place, as has been reported, his Lordſhip will be continued in his preſent Office.

April 9. Letters from Warſaw confirm the Accounts of a Confederacy forming in Poland, on the Score of Religion, with theſe Additions, that the Staroſte Wareſki is raiſing all the Coſſacks and Tartars he can; that a Carmelite Friar animates the People in his Diſcourſes to take up Arms; that all who join them are ſworn to Fidelity; and that, beſides the Motto mentioned in a late Paper, they have alſo ſet up the following on ſome of their Standards (Pro Religione & Libertate) "For Religion and Liberty." In the mean Time, theſe Advices ſay, that no Orders have yet been given by the Court to put the Crown-Troops in Motion, excepting a few light armed Pulks; it being judged better to endeavour to bring the Aſſociators to Reaſon by Lenity and Kindneſs, than to uſe Rigour againſt them; though, on the other Hand, ſome are not without Apprehenſions, that the Malecontents are ſupported by a foreign Power (the Turks) and ſhould the Crown-Troops be ordered to march out, they would only add to the Number of the Inſurgents by Deſerters.

A grand Council was held this Day at St. James's, at which the Earl of Chatham and Lord Cambden aſſiſted; the former came to Town for that Purpoſe Yeſterday, and the latter this Morning.

Several Liſts of approaching Changes in the Adminiſtration are handed about; but we are credibly informed they are none of them authentic; and further, that no immediate Changes are expected in any of the great Offices of State.

April 12. Letters from Genoa of the 12th Ult. adviſe, that a Courier has juſt paſſed through that City, for Rome, with Diſpatches for the Pope, on the Part of the King of France, importing, that if his Holineſs did not forthwith withdraw his Bull againſt the Court of Parma, and diſcard the Cardinal Torregiani, his Secretary of State, the Ambaſſador of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, would immediately leave Rome without taking Leave.

The laſt Advices from Spain, we hear, are very unfavourable, and it is thought we are upon the Eve of a Rupture with that Court.

It is reported, that Orders will ſoon be given for the Artificers in the Dock-Yards at Plymouth, Portſmouth, and Chatham, to be augmented, in order to fit out ſeveral Ships of War, which are to make their Appearance this Summer in the Mediterranean.

Letters from the Hague mention, that in a late Council of the States-General it was unanimouſly reſolved to prevent, if poſſible, a Rupture with the Algerines.

They write from Gibraltar, that a Dutch Frigate of War lately put into the Bay, having on board ſeveral Pieces of Braſs Ordnance, Gunpowder, and Naval Stores, together with ſome valuable Articles, intended as a Preſent to the Dey of Algiers.

April 14. Some late Advices from Holland inform, that the Empreſs Queen has forbid her Subjects of the Auſtrian Netherlands to carry on any Intercourſe or Trade with the Dutch; the Reaſon for this unexpected Procedure is not aſſigned.

They write from Liſbon, that ſome great Perſons there expreſs much Diſſatisfaction at the intended Ceſſion of Paraguay in South-America, to his Moſt Catholic Majeſty.

April 16. Yeſterday arrived a Mail from New-York, brought by the Cumberland Packet-Boat, Capt. Bunſter.

Yeſterday there was a great Council at St. James's, at which Lord Gower, Preſident, the Duke of Grafton, the Two Secretaries of State, and the Earl of Hillſborough, Secretary for the American Colonies, aſſiſted; ſaid to be in reference to Diſpatches received from the ſaid Colonies.

It is ſaid the Earl of Chatham has had ſeveral private Conferences with his Majeſty ſince his Arrival in Town. His Lordſhip enjoys a tolerable State of Health at preſent.

April 19. A Letter from Lucca, dated March 19, ſays, "According to the laſt Advices from Rome, the King of Sardinia has offered his Mediation to terminate the Differences ſubſiſting between the Holy See and the Infant Duke of Parma; but with what Succeſs we know not."

They write from Warſaw, that a Report prevailed there, that the Confederates of Podolia had blocked up the Fortreſs of Kaminieck, in order to reduce it by Famine.

This Morning a Packet with Diſpatches was ſent off from the Secretary of State's Office, for his Excellency Francis Bernard, Eſq; Governor of New-England.

A Letter from Goſport, dated April 5, ſays, "This Day Orders were ſent on board all the Ships in ordinary in the Harbour, for them to be thoroughly cleaned, and got ready for a Survey by the Lords of the Admiralty and Commiſſioners of the Navy; the Commiſſioner of Portſmouth Dock is expected to viſit the Ships To-Morrow.

The following remarkable Affair lately happened at a Village in Norfolk:——A Gentleman's Coachman having frequently loſt his Corn, Bruſhes, and even his Horſe-Rubbers, for all which his Maſter uſed to make him pay, was determined to ſit up all Night and watch the Thief; when a Perſon came in and began to take out ſome Oats out of the Bin with a Sieve, when the Coachman ſeized him by the Collar, and, to his great Surpriſe, found it was his own Maſter; but being of true athletic Mould, gave his Maſter a very hearty Drubbing, who cried out, Sirrah! I am your Maſter. It is a d——d Lie, replied the Coachman, ſtill keeping drubbing on; do you think my Maſter would be ſuch a Raſcal and Villain to rob himſelf?

The Mob in their late Extravagancies ſtopped the Count de Seilern, the Imperial Ambaſſador's Coach, inſiſted on his huzzaing Wilkes and Liberty; after which they chalked No. 45, on each of his Excellency's Shoes.

It is reported that Sir William Baker has not only declared his Intentions of reſigning his Gown, but is actually making Intereſt in his Ward for Mr. Wilkes to ſucceed him.

It is ſaid to be certain that Mr. Wilkes propoſes to ſtand Candidate for an Alderman of the City of London, the firſt Vacancy that may happen.

Such is the great Zeal of the Fair Sex for that moſt adorable Goddeſs, LIBERTY, that it is aſſured Four young Ladies at the Weſt-End of the Town, having juſt received their ſmall annual Stipend for Pocket-Money, immediately lodged it in the Hands of the Banker for the Uſe of Mr. Wilkes.

It is now ſaid that there is no Flaw in Mr. Wilkes's Outlawry.

It is expected that Sentence will be paſſed on Mr. Wilkes the 20th of this Month at Weſtminſter-Hall.

'Tis thought that there will be at leaſt an Hundred and Fifty new Members in the enſuing Parliament.

It is ſaid, that there will be more Petitions preſented to the Houſe of Commons next Parliament, complaining of undue Elections and Returns, than has been known ſince 1727.

April 21. Yeſterday Morning Mr. Wilkes came from his Apartments in Prince's-Row, near Great George-Street, Weſtminſter, in a Chair to the Parliament Coffee-Houſe, in Old Palace-Yard, being preceded by Three Gentlemen, who moſt preſſingly recommended Silence and good Order to the Populace, as did Mr. Wilkes alſo from the Chair. He ſtaid at the Coffee-Houſe till the Court was ſet, when he went the Back-way into it, in order to ſurrender himſelf; and the following is

Mr. WILKES's Speech to the Court of King's-Bench:

"MY LORDS,

"According to the voluntary Promiſe I made to the Public, I now appear before this Sovereign Court of Juſtice, to ſubmit myſelf in every Thing to the Laws of my Country.

"Two Verdicts have been found againſt me. One is for the Re-publication of the North Briton, No. 45, another for the Publication of a ludicrous Poem. As to the Re-publication of the Number of the Briton, I do not yet ſee that there is the ſmalleſt

Degree of G—. I have often read and examined with Care that famous Paper. I know that it is in every Part founded on the ſtrongeſt Evidence of Facts. I find it full of Duty and Reſpect to the Perſon of the King, although it arraigns, in the ſeverest Manner, the Conduct of his Majeſty's then Miniſters, and brings very heavy Charges home to them. I am perſuaded they were well grounded, becauſe every one of thoſe Miniſters has ſince been removed. No one Inſtance of Falſehood has yet been pointed out in that pretended Libel, nor was the Word falſe in the Information before this Court. I am therefore perfectly eaſy under every Imputation reſpecting a Paper, in which Truth has guided the Pen of the Writer, whoever he was, in every ſingle Line; and it is this Circumſtance which has drawn on me, as the ſuppoſed Author, all the Cruelties of Miniſterial Vengeance.

"As to the other Charge againſt me, for the Publication of a Poem, which has given juſt Offence, I will aſſert that ſuch an Idea never entered my Mind. I bluſh again at the Recollection that it has been at any Time, and in any Way brought to the Public Eye, and drawn from the Obſcurity in which it remained under my Roof. Twelve Copies of a ſmall Part of it had been printed in my Houſe, at my own Private Preſs. I had carefully locked them up, and I never gave one to the moſt intimate Friend. Go——t, after the Affair of the North Briton, bribed one of my Servants to rob me of the Copy, which was produced in the Houſe of Peers, and afterwards before this Honourable Court. The Nation was juſtly offended, but not with me, for it was evident that I had not been guilty of the leaſt Offence to the Public. I pray God to forgive, as I do, the Jury, who have found me guilty of publiſhing a Poem, I concealed with Care, and which is not even yet publiſhed, if any preciſe Meaning can be affixed to any Word in our Language.

"But, my Lords, neither of the Two Verdicts could have been found againſt me, if the Records had not been materially altered, without my Conſent, and, as I am informed, contrary to L--. On the Evening only before the Two Trials, —————— cauſed the Records to be altered at his own Houſe, againſt the Conſent of my Solicitor, and without my Knowledge, for a dangerous Illneſs, ariſing from an Affair of Honour, detained me at that Time abroad. The Alterations were of the utmoſt Importance, and I was in Conſequence tried the very next Day on Two new Charges, of which I could know nothing. I will venture to declare this Proceeding un——nal. I am adviſed that it is i—l, and that it renders both the Verdicts abſolutely void.

"I have ſtood forth, my Lords, in Support of the Laws, againſt the arbitrary Acts of Miniſters. This Court of Juſtice, in a ſolemn Appeal, reſpecting General Warrants, ſhewed their Senſe of my Conduct. I ſhall continue to reverence the wiſe and mild Syſtem of Engliſh Laws, and this excellent Conſtitution. I have been much miſrepreſented, but under every Species of Perſecution, I will remain firm and friendly to the Monarchy, dutiful and affectionate to the illuſtrious Prince, who wears the Crown, and to the whole Brunſwic Line.

"As to all nice, intricate Points of Law, I am ſenſible how narrow and circumſcribed my Ideas are, but I have experienced the deep Knowledge, and great Abilities of my Counſel. With them I reſt the legal Part of my Defence, ſubmitting every Point to the Judgment of this Honourable Court, and to the Laws of England."

NEW-YORK, June 13.

Dear Sir, Detroit, May 11, 1768.

You'll be much ſurprized to find, by the following Paragraph of a Letter, wrote to me by an Officer at Michilimakinac, the 24th of February laſt, that the formerly very famous and much eſteemed Major Robert Rogers, is now capable of ſuch horrid Villainy:—The Letter is as follows.

Dear Sir,

"I now take this Opportunity to congratulate you on your Eſcape from Murder and Plunder; Major Rogers, that experienced Chief to all Manner of Wickedneſs and Treachery, had formed a deep and horrid Plot to kill me, ſend Captain Spicemaker, and Lieut. Chriſtie, Priſoners to the Indian Country, plunder this Garriſon, and put all the Soldiers to Death, who were not in the Plot, and who would not comply with his Silence; this was to be executed by a numerous Party of Indians, ſome Soldiers, and French Inhabitants, that had conſented to it: He then, with the Indians, and what Part of the Troops that would follow him, were immediately to ſet off to ſurprize the Garriſon of Detroit, and give it up to Plunder to his Followers, for their Service, and then proceed to Old France (via New Orleans.) As he was pretty well convinced of the Abilities and Watchfulneſs of the Commander, and other Officers of Detroit, and doubting his being able to take it by Surprize, he had pitch'd upon ſome Pieces of Braſs Cannon for laying a regular Siege to it. He is now in heavy Irons, with an Accomplice, and as there are many King's Evidences, no Part of this Account can be doubted."

I herewith incloſe you another Letter to me, on the ſame Subject, thinking that theſe Accounts from the Gentlemen on the Spot, may be more ſatisfactory to you than Hearſay.

Sir, Michilimakinac, Feb. 24, 1768.

"At this Seaſon you'll be ſurprized to ſee an Expreſs from this; it is with the joyful News of Michilimakinac preſerved, or the Plot diſcovered, a diſmal Treachery carried on by its late Commandant, to maſſacre the Garriſon, eſpecially thoſe who ſhould oppoſe him in making his Eſcape; to head the reſt with the Indians in his Intereſt, plunder this, and march againſt Detroit afterwards; make the beſt of his Way to Capt. Hopkins, on the Miſſiſippi, who he had invited with a few Men laſt Spring, to deliver this Fort to him on his Arrival; making Intereſt, in his Confinement, with a Frenchman here to join him, and to get Capt. Spicemaker, and me, maſſacred, or taken by the Indians, before he was to attempt any Thing, was the Means of this Diſcovery:——We ſent him to Rogers, to know what he was to do for him for ſo great an Undertaking he went, and returned to us with [illegible] Hand, for 100 Pounds Sterling, [illegible] Years."

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 23.

Yeſterday Evening his Excellency our Governor, after paſſing the Laws made this Seſſion, [the Titles of which will be inſerted in our next] prorogued the General Aſſembly of this Province, to Tueſday the 4th of October next.

[redacted]

Laſt Sunday departed this Life, in the 79th Year of his Age, the Honble. BENJAMIN TASKER, Eſq; Preſident of the Council.——We can't repreſs our Inclination to pay ſome Tribute to the Memory of this moſt worthy Gentleman, tho' we are ſenſible that our Expreſſions of Regard for him, will be anticipated by every Reader in MARYLAND; for, as the Sphere in which he moved, made him univerſally known, ſo did his natural Affability and Philanthropy, engage the Eſteem of all. His Temperance, Equanimity, Politeneſs, and Humanity, were ſo conſpicuous, that theſe Qualities were ſeldom celebrated, without the Illuſtration of his Example, and that Complacency and Dignity of Diſpoſition, which recommended him to the Regard and Eſteem of others, in a peculiar Manner endear'd him in his neareſt and moſt tender Connexions.

On the Evening of Friday laſt, Mr. THOMAS RICHARDSON, late of this City, Merchant, was inſtantly kill'd by a Flaſh of Lightning, which melted his Watch, Shoe, and Knee Buckles.—He was ſitting in a Room at Mr. ADAIR's, in BALTIMORE-TOWN, with another Perſon, at a ſmall Diſtance, who was ſtruck down, but ſoon recovered. The Damage done to the Houſe, is inconſiderable, except in the Roof.—Mr. RICHARDSON was a young Man, in the Prime of Life, and poſſeſs'd many good Qualities, which juſtly entitled him to the Eſteem of a numerous Acquaintance.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

HORATIO SHARPE, ESQUIRE,

Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

A PROCLAMATION.

MARYLAND, ss. WHEREAS it has been represented to Me, that the Dwelling House of James Calder, of Baltimore County, was, on Tuesday Night, the Twenty-fourth of this Instant, broken into by Two Villains, who, after rummaging below, went up Stairs into a Chamber, where Mrs. Calder and a young Lady were in Bed, whom they treated in a most shocking and barbarous Manner; first whetting their Knives before them, then seizing them by the Throats, with many Motions, as if they would murder them, unless they would give their Money, and kept them in that miserable Situation for Four or Five Hours, having wounded Mrs. Calder in the Hand, and the young Lady very terribly in the Shoulder: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this horrid Crime, I do hereby promise a Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in committing the said Offence, on Condition that he discovers his Accomplice, so that he be apprehended and convicted thereof. And, as a further Encouragement, I do hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the Apprehension of the said Villains, or ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY DOLLARS for either of them, to be paid on his or their Conviction.

GIVEN at the City of Annapolis, this 28th Day of May, in the 18th Year of his Lordship's Dominion, Anno Domini, 1768.

Signed by Order, U. SCOTT, Cl. Con.

AND, as a further Encouragement, the Subscriber offers a Reward of TEN POUNDS more, to any Person, not concerned in the Crime, that will discover the Authors, so as they may be brought to Justice; and, to either of the Two Persons, who broke the House, the like Sum, provided he convicts the other, to be paid by

JAMES CALDER.

JUST OPENED,

ROOKE & MAYBURY.

To be sold by the Subscriber, on the first Monday in July next, if fair, if not, the next fair Day, to the highest Bidder, for Sterling Money only,

TWO TRACTS of LAND joining on each other, and lying on, and in Zachaiah Swamps, near the old Bridges, in Charles County, one of them called Part of George's Rest, and Part of Boarman's Manor, containing by Deed, Two Hundred Acres, more or less: The other, called Tumbit, containing by Patent, Fifty Acres, more or less. They are both of a fine rich Soil, well suited for making Corn, Wheat, and Tobacco. About Forty or Fifty Acres lies low, exceedingly rich, and may, with a very little Trouble, be made an extraordinary Meadow. The Whole is well Timbered and Watered, and is very wholsomely and pleasantly situated. It has good necessary Improvements, such as a small Dwelling-House, planked, with Two Rooms on a Floor, a Kitchen, and other Out-Houses, with Two good Tobacco Houses, an Apple Orchard, with many Peach and Cherry Trees. All the Plantation is in good Repair. There will also be sold, with the Land, on the Premises, Three Country-born SLAVES, a Fellow about Thirty Years of Age, a remarkable good Hand, and Two Boys, one about Twelve or Thirteen Years old, the other about Fifteen.

WILLIAM BOARMAN.

N. B. Credit for Part, will be given, if required, on good Security.

Elk-Ridge Furnace, May 30, 1768.

TWELVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away, last Night, from the Subscriber, Two Convict Servant Men, viz.

JAMES RAIN, a Mason by Trade, about 35 Years of Age, 5 Feet 9 Inches high, of a brown Complexion, has short black Hair, large Eye-Brows, a frowning Down-look, large Legs, and talks in the West-Country Dialect: He took with him a Cotton Jacket and Breeches, a Pair of black and white Yarn Stockings, and a new Felt Hat.

THOMAS HUGHS, a Carpenter by Trade, about 25 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, has brown Hair, and a pretty agreeable Way of Address, but often looks down, and has a large Nose, rising at the End; he has lately had a sore Leg, which is yet of a dark red Colour about the Small: Had on, when he went away, a blue Surtout Coat, with Brass Buttons, and a Belt to buckle round him, a red Plush Jacket, stained with black, on one Side of the Breast, with red Mohair Buttons, one Check Shirt, one white ditto, and a Pair of old black knit Breeches, a Castor Hat, bound round the Brim, with black Silk Ferrit, and a blue and white spotted Handkerchief. It is also supposed they have taken with them, a black Cloth Coat, and one dark brown ditto, with green Lining, a Pair of German Serge Breeches, a red Plush Jacket, Two white Shirts, a Pair of striped Holland Trowsers, a black Barcelona Silk Handkerchief, a turned broad Cloth Coat, with white Lining, and Brass Buttons, with sundry other Things.

Whoever takes up the said Runaways, and brings them home, shall have, if taken 10 Miles from said Furnace, Thirty Shillings; if 20 Miles, Forty Shillings; if 40 Miles, Three Pounds; and, if out of the Province, Six Pounds Reward, for each, (including what the Law allows) paid by

(3w) CALEB DORSEY.

N. B. Whoever takes up said Runaways, are desired to take great Care of them, for they are great Villains, and will try, if possible, to escape.

May 30, 1768.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore County, on Sunday Evening the 29th Instant, the Two following Servants, viz. THOMAS STEVENS, a Convict, about 25 or 26 Years of Age, about 5 Feet, 9 or 10 Inches high, has large round Shoulders, dark Hair, grey Eyes, his Nose stands forward in his Face, and has been in the Country about Ten Months: Had on, and took with him, a short black and white Country Cloth Coat, a white Country Cloth Waistcoat, a Pair ditto Breeches, a Pair of old Shoes, with Hob Nails in both Soles and Heels, Osnabrig Shirt, and old Castor Hat. It is supposed he has purchased new Cloaths, and has Cash with him. SARAH CONWAY, an indented Irish Servant, has been in the Country about Two Years, about 24 Years of Age, about 5 Feet high, pale Complexion, black Hair, grey Eyes, and is a good Spinner: Had on, and took with her, a blue and white Linsey Petticoat, a yellow and white ditto, a yellow and white Bed Gown, a Pair of Leather Shoes, a Pair of Stockings, a Dowlas Shift, a purple and white Calico Gown, and sundry Caps and Handkerchiefs. Whoever apprehends said Servants, and secures them, so that their Master gets them again, shall have, if taken in the County, Thirty Shillings each, if out of the County, Forty Shillings, and if out of the Province, Fifty Shillings, and reasonable Charges if brought home, paid by THOMAS SOLLERS.

 It is supposed they are gone by Water, and that the Man has a Discharge from a Man of War, or a Regiment, and it's likely they may pass for Man and Wife.

THE MISSISSIPPI COMPANY is desired to meet at Stafford Court House, in Virginia, the first Day of 1768. By order of the Committee,

WILLIAM KNAPP,
WATCH and CLOCK-MAKER,

IMPRESSED with a grateful Sense of the Favours he has received from the Gentlemen of this, and the neighbouring Provinces, takes this Method of returning his sincere Thanks for the Countenance and Encouragement he has hitherto been honoured with; and, as he is sollicitous to merit a Continuance of their Approbation, he has lately procured, at a very considerable Expence, a complete Apparatus, for the more effectual Execution of the different Branches in his Business, without which it is impracticable to give that Satisfaction he is studious to render, and he is determined, by unremitting Assiduity, and the utmost Exertion of his Abilities, to justify and secure the Public Confidence.

It is with Concern he finds himself reduced to the disagreeable Necessity of cautioning the Public against the continued Botcheries practised by many Pretenders to the Business, whose Inabilities are too frequently experienced by the Employer, as heavy Charges inevitably follow, to rectify the Errors of those Tinkering Performers, and the Mechanism of the Piece is often destroyed, beyond the Power of Art to repair.

He has, of his own Make, GOLD, SILVER, and PINCHBECK WATCHES, of the best and newest Construction, finished in the genteelest Taste, some with Seconds in the Center, commonly called Stop-Watches, Eight-day and Alarum Clocks: The Qualities and Prices of all which are contrived to prevent Importation, as he flatters himself those Gentlemen, who have already dealt with him, can testify, and such as shall please to honour him with their Commands, will agreeably experience: The commendable Ardour which has been happily manifested for the Promotion of American Manufactures, induces him to hope for the Encouragement of all who are inclined to protect and countenance social Industry amongst us; and he doubts not but they will clearly perceive the Advantages of dealing with the Maker on the Spot, where they can previously examine what they purchase, and who will engage to keep his Work in Repair, at the trifling Charge of 3*s.* 6*d.* Annually (general Accidents excepted) He will receive and complete, with the greatest Expedition, Orders either for Watches or Clocks, made on any Principle, and agreeable to any Fashion, and will allow, in Exchange, the best Prices for old Watches and Clocks.

He will wait on any Gentleman in, or near this City, to repair their Clocks.

JUST IMPORTED,

In the POLLY, Capt. JOHN KILTY, and to be sold, Wholesale or Retail, on the most reasonable Terms, by the Subscriber, in Annapolis,

AN Assortment of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS: Amongst which are fine Hyson, Green, and Bohea TEAS. He has likewise a Quantity of Cotton and Thread Stockings, which he will sell at a low Advance, together, or in Parcels.

THOMAS HALL.

N. B. A considerable Difference will be made in the Prices of Goods to those who pay ready Cash.

BENEDICT, May 2, 1768.

THE Subscriber intending to GREAT-BRITAIN very shortly, requests all Persons indebted to him, or himself and Company, (especially those who are indebted considerable Sums for Dealings in the Wholesale Way) to be speedy in their Payments, which may save them much Trouble, and will greatly oblige him.——All those who are indebted upon open Accounts, and cannot conveniently pay at this Time, are requested to come in, and settle their Accounts, by Bonds, Notes, or otherways, to prevent Disputes that often occur at settling open Accounts in the Absence of one of the contracting Parties.

All Persons having Claims against the Subscriber, are desired to bring them in, to be adjusted and paid.——The STORE at BENEDICT, is to be continued, and regularly supplied, as usual, under the Management of Mr. ROBERT YOUNG, who hath lately received a large and general Assortment of EAST-INDIA and EUROPEAN GOODS, imported from LONDON and GLASGOW; and will be sold Wholesale or Retail, on very reasonable Terms, for Cash, Bills of Exchange, or Tobacco. Mr. YOUNG has also for Sale, WEST-INDIA Rum and Sugar—best VIRGINIA inspected Pork, and a few Pipes, Hogsheads, and Quarter Casks of genuine MADEIRA Wine, of the NEW-YORK Quality, of Vintage 1766, and is now selling at the very low Price of Forty-five Pounds Currency per Pipe, ready Money, and filled up when delivered: The Price of Hogsheads and Quarter-Casks, in Proportion; viz. 22 l. 10*s.* and 11 l. 5*s.* He will shortly have Wine of same Quality, of last Vintage, which will be sold for ready Money, or Bills of Exchange, as imported, at Cost and Charges.——A Cargo of best Stove-dry'd small white SALT, is daily expected, which will be sold cheap, if taken from the Ship's Side, at BENEDICT.

The Subscriber hath for Sale a choice Parcel of coarse GOODS, just imported in the SHARPE, Capt. BRUCE, from GLASGOW: They amount to 570 l. 1*s.* 3*d.* Prime Cost, clear of Charges; are well bought, as may be seen by the Prices and Quality of the Goods, and will be sold a Bargain, for ready Money, Bills of Exchange, or Tobacco:—— They consist of the following Articles, viz. Mens Youths, and Boys Castor and Felt Hats, KENDAL Cottons, Osnabrigs, Harns, and Tweel Sacking,—3-4 7-8 and 4-4 IRISH Linens, 9-8 brown and white IRISH Sheetings, SCOTS Dowlas, and Printed Cotton Cloth; 3-4 FYFE, and 7-8 GLASGOW Checks, 3-4 and 7-8 strip'd Hollands and Bed-Ticks, Buckrams, Linen Handkerchiefs, Aprons of Lawn, Needle-work'd, Tartans, Writing-Paper, and Osnabrig Thread:——SCOTS Plaiding, Mens Yarn and Plaid Hose, Mens and Youths Leather Breeches, Bearskins, Duffils, Kerseys, and low-priced Broad-Cloths, of various Colours, with Shalloons, Buttons and Twist, to suit them all.——Mens Saddles, Bridles and Surcingles, Pewter Plates, Dishes, Basons, and hard Metal Spoons; Twelve Dozen best SCOTS Snuff, Four Casks 8*d.* and 10*d.* Nails, and a good Assortment of small HARD WARE, too numerous to particularize.——If the Purchaser of this Parcel should want any additional Articles, he will be supplied with them from the General Assortment in Mr. YOUNG's Store, on the same Terms on which he buys the Parcel.

(tf) THOMAS CAMPBELL.

May 17, 1768.

RAN away from the Subscriber, in St. Mary's County, on the 2d of this Instant, an Indented Lad, named JAMES JOHNSTON, about 20 Years of Age, has been brought up as a Gentleman's Servant; he is about 5 Feet 5 Inches high, is very fond of Liquor. He carried with him a new Duroy Coat, and Shag lapell'd Jacket, and different Changes of Linen. He also carried with him a bay Horse, about 14 Hands high, with a bob Tail; paces, trots, gallops, and has a remarkable handsome Carriage, when in the Bridle.

Whoever secures said Fellow, so that I can get him again, shall have THREE POUNDS Reward, and the like for the Horse.

THOMAS KEY.

May 18, 1768.

To be Sold, on Thursday the 30*th of* June next, at Public SALE, by the SUBSCRIBER, living on the Premises, in Frederick County, Maryland, about 11 Miles from Frederick-Town, for Tobacco, Cash, or good Bills of Exchange,

THREE Hundred and Fifty-five Acres of Patent LAND, whereon is a Farm of about 50 Acres, under a good Fence; a young Apple-Orchard of 100 Trees; a round Log Dwelling-House and Kitchen; a new Barn, and several other Conveniencies too tedious to mention: The Land is of a good Soil, well watered and timbered; about 16 Acres of Meadow may be made, Part of which was cleared and sow'd this Spring, with Timothy-Seed. There is also on the above Land, on the main Road from Frederick-Town to Philadelphia, a Square Log Dwelling-House, Two Stories high, 30 Feet by 20, with Five Rooms, Three Fire Places, with Brick Chimnies; a Cellar 26 by 17, in the Clear: Also a new Stone Dwelling-House, adjoining the Log one, 30 by 20; One Story high, Two Rooms, and One Fire-Place, with a Brick-Chimney; a Frame Kitchen; Two Log Stables; a Shed for Horses in the Summer; a Frame Weave Shop, where the Business is now carried on; a Blacksmith's Shop, 24 Feet by 16, and a Cool-House adjoining it, 24 by 8, both under a good Shingle Roof, with Two Fire Places, where the Business is now carried on by Four Blacksmiths: Also a Frame Dwelling-House, 24 Feet by 18, with a Stone Chimney in the Middle, and a Stove in one End: Two Gardens, containing about 1½ Acres; a Hen-House; Meat-House, and several other Conveniencies: Likewise a Tract of Land, containing 100 Acres. The Soil is good, and is middling well timbered, but no Water thereon. The abovementioned Land suits extremely well for Two Settlements, the Water and Meadow Ground being suitable. Also a Tract of Land, containing 222 Acres, adjoining the aforesaid Land, well watered and middling well timbered, about Four Acres cleared, and under a good Fence, with a small Dwelling-House.——The aforesaid 355 Acres will be set up altogether, or in Two Lots, as may best suit the Purchasers. Six Months Credit will be given for Half the Purchase Money, of any Part or Parcel of the aforesaid Land, on giving Bond and Security, if required. (4w) ROBERT WOOD.

To be LET and entered on the 1st of December next,

THE TENEMENT, whereon Nathaniel Slicer now lives, distant about 8 Miles from George-Town and Bladensburgh. For further Particulars apply to the said Slicer, or (tf) DANIEL CARROLL.

Talbot County, March 2, 1768.

AS a regular Intercourse by Sea, betwixt Maryland and Philadelphia, is generally thought a great Conveniency to the Trading Gentlemen of both Provinces, by giving them an Opportunity of getting the Commodities of each Place, from each other, with quick Dispatch, and on safer and easier Terms, than they cou'd before; the Subscriber intends to continue his Schooner, the MARYLAND-PACKET, in that Trade, agreeable to his Advertisement of September last. He hopes the Gentlemen of both Provinces will give him the Encouragement, his Desire to serve, and the Conveniency he affords them, may merit. He will receive Goods on Freight, for any Part of Maryland, on low Terms, provided the Quantity will be sufficient to defray the Expence. The Vessel will be address'd to Bond and Byrn, Merchants in Philadelphia, who offer their Service to all the Gentlemen of Maryland, who have not an established Correspondency in Philadelphia, and will serve them with the utmost Punctuality, for the usual Commission. Orders to them, will meet with quick Dispatch, if sent to the Care of Col. Fitzhugh, at the Mouth of Patuxent, to John Martin, near Oxford; or by the several Posts. The Schooner is now in Philadelphia, and it is expected she will return, and be there again, by the Middle or last of April. (3m) JOHN MARTIN.
